

Membership Regulations

(Purpose)

Article 1. The purpose of these Regulations is to set forth the membership qualifications of Japan Cable Laboratories pursuant to the Article 7 of its articles of incorporation.

(Regular Members)

Article 2. Regular members shall be corporations that engage in the cable television business, and also multiple-system operators (MSO) that supervise cable television operators shall be included as regular members.

(Associate Members)

Article 3. Associate members shall be individuals or organizations that are related to the cable television business and support the mandate of Japan Cable Laboratories.

(Cable Television Business)

Article 4. Corporations that engage in the cable television business shall mean wired television broadcasting organizations or corporations registered under the Act Concerning Broadcast on Telecommunications Services and conduct broadcasting using the same broadcast system as those that are permitted under the Cable Television Broadcast Act.

(Multiple-System Operators)

Article 5. Multiple-system operators (MSO) that supervise cable television business operations shall mean corporations that manage multiple cable television operators on managerial and technical aspects as well as support their operations.

(Effective Date)

Article 6. These Regulations shall take effect from October 1, 2009.